When I mention “the unit block” of a street, this means the incident occurred at an address anywhere between 1 and 99 of the street.

Notable Cases

On Monday, 06-20-22, at approximately 10:35 p.m., Officer DeLorenzi responded to a carjacking that occurred on the unit block of Poncetta Drive. The victim stated that an unknown suspect said, “Get out, give me your car keys, give me your purse, I’m not playing with you.” The passenger of the vehicle ran off, allowing the suspect to enter the car. The victim tried to reverse the vehicle, but the suspect intervened and pushed the gear shift back into park. The suspect then hit the victim’s face with his gun multiple times. The suspect also grabbed onto the victim’s sweatshirt and pushed and pulled her, causing scratches to her chest area. The victim was able to exit the car and run away. The victim described the suspect as a Hispanic male with a light to medium complexion, in his early twenties, approximately 5’7” tall with a slender build, and was wearing two white face masks, a black hooded sweatshirt, and dark pants. The suspect drove off with her Lexus IS250. This investigation is continuing.

On Tuesday, 06-21-22, at approximately 7:39 p.m., Office Ticzon was dispatched to 7-Eleven on Gellert Boulevard on a report of a brandishing of a knife. An employee stated that he saw a suspect using their trash cans. The employee confronted the suspect about using the trash cans. The suspect pulled out a knife and pointed it at the employee. The employee then fled back into the store. Moments later, the suspect entered the store, pointed his finger at the employee, and said, “I’m gonna get you.” Officers located the suspect, a 68-year-old Daly City resident, in the parking lot. The suspect was arrested and booked for threatening a crime with intent to terrorize and exhibiting a deadly weapon.

On Tuesday, 06-21-22, between 5:00 a.m. and 5:30 a.m., a catalytic converter was stolen from a 2006 Honda Accord on the 100 block of Hampshire Avenue.

Between Thursday, 06-23-22, at 7:35 p.m., and Friday, 06-24-22, at 8:20 a.m., a catalytic converter was stolen from a 2010 Toyota Prius on the unit block of Fairmont Drive. Online report.

On Friday, 06-24-22, at approximately 2:55 a.m., a catalytic converter was stolen from a 2010 Toyota Prius on the unit block of Westmont Drive. Online report.

On Saturday, 06-25-22, between 2:40 p.m. and 5:15 p.m., a catalytic converter was stolen from a 2002 Toyota Prius at the Westlake Shopping Center parking lot.

Robberies

There were three robberies and an attempted robbery during the past week.

On Wednesday, 06-22-22, at approximately 9:42 p.m., officers were dispatched to the 200 block of Westmoor Avenue on a report of an armed robbery. A victim stated that an unknown suspect approached him and demanded his phone and wallet. The suspect pulled his hoodie up, revealing a black handgun in his waistband. After seeing the gun, the victim gave the suspect his wallet containing approximately $80, credit/debit cards, a school ID card, and CA driver's license. The suspect then pushed the victim and walked away. The victim described the suspect as a Black male with a mustache, approximately 5'10" tall, between the ages of 20-30 years old, and wearing a black hoodie and black pants. This investigation is continuing.

On Thursday, 06-23-22, between 11:10 a.m. and 11:20 a.m., a suspect entered Target at the Westlake Shopping Center and took a duffel bag. The suspect then proceeded to the detergent aisle, placed seven Tide PODS into the duffel bag, and walked out of the store. The items are valued at approximately $140. Target security asked the suspect to speak about the stolen merchandise. The suspect verbally threatened the employee and then left. Online report.

On Sunday, 06-26-22, at approximately 3:46 p.m., Officer Huynh and Officer Dhaliwal were dispatched to Lucky Supermarket on a report of a robbery with a knife. An employee stated that he recognized that the suspect was in the process of shoplifting. The suspect exited the south side doors with the stolen merchandise. When the store employee caught up with the suspect near the shopping cart corral, the store employee asked the suspect to leave the stolen merchandise. The employee told the suspect that he was on the phone with the police and that if the suspect returned the stolen goods, he did not want to seek prosecution. The suspect then turned around, looked at the store employee, and pulled out a knife. The suspect said, "Don't touch me. I will cut you." The store employee stepped back and said, "Okay." The store employee felt panicked and believed the suspect would have stabbed him if he had approached the suspect any further in an attempt to retrieve the bag with stolen merchandise. The suspect walked away northbound on Mission Street. Officer Jayme, who was canvassing the area, located the suspect walking on Vista Grande Avenue towards San Diego Avenue with the bag of stolen merchandise, Tide products, valued at approximately $200. The suspect's bag also had a knife in it. The suspect, a 30-year-old San Francisco resident, was arrested and booked into jail for robbery.

On Sunday, 06-26-22, at approximately 4:01 a.m., Officer Carman was dispatched to Coronado Avenue and Lake Merced Boulevard on a report of an assault. Two suspects attempted to rob a victim. The first suspect asked the victim what he had in his possession, and the victim replied that he had nothing. Then, a second suspect hit him with a bat out of nowhere. The victim put his hands up to shield his head and was able to run away. The victim sustained injuries to his hands and had no belongings taken by the suspects. The first suspect was described as a Hispanic male, approximately 20 years old, and wearing a white shirt. The second suspect was described as a Hispanic male, approximately 20 years old, and wearing a black shirt.

Scams/Other

On Sunday, 06-26-22, a 54-year-old Daly City resident received a phone call from a suspect claiming to be her "cousin." The suspect pretending to be her "cousin" said he had flown into California for a business trip, but was detained by Customs for a violation he had committed in Mexico. The suspect told the victim that she needed to send $780 so that he would be able to pay the fine and get released. The victim then spoke to an unknown female claiming to be a "U.S. Customs Agent." The victim used the Western Union mobile app to send the money. After sending the money, the "cousin" called the victim back and offered to pay the money back to her and would later respond to her residence to pay her. The victim contacted her family in Mexico and learned that her cousin was in Mexico and had never flown to the U.S. The victim realized that she was scammed and ceased all communication with the suspect.

San Mateo County Alert System (SMC)

Have you signed up to receive these alerts? This alert is a free digital communication system used by emergency management agencies and first responders to send emergency alerts, notifications, and updates to portable digital devices. In an emergency situation, an alert will be sent by San Mateo County authorized personnel, and you will receive messages on your cell phone or mobile device. Most carriers activate the service automatically. To receive emergency alerts, sign up by visiting www.smcalert.info. According to County records, Daly City has the lowest number of registered users in the county. Please sign up today!

Nextdoor.com

Nextdoor.com is a free private social networking website for your neighborhood. This private network ensures that only those who live in your neighborhood can join; users must go through a verification process. Neighbors ask each other for business recommendations; help in locating missing pets; discuss relevant local government issues; or connect for other reasons. It is very easy to sign up. I like the fact that the site verifies users by addresses, and it won't allow people to access a neighborhood if they don't live there. Please note: The City of Daly City and/or the Police Department cannot see what residents post—we are only allowed to post information. There is also a mobile application, or you can have it sent to your e-mail. Give it a try! www.nextdoor.com
